

The red lines indicate water mains that are older than 1946. The Medford Water Commission is checking all meter boxes served by these older water mains to see whether the service line is galvanized or copper pipe. If the line is galvanized, which indicates a likelihood the service could have a lead pigtail, we will notify the customer and investigate further to determine whether there is a lead pipe that needs to be removed.

Water Facility Map
of
1946 and Earlier Water
Distribution Piping

June 16, 2016

This map is based on a digital database compiled by Medford Water Commission from a variety of sources. Medford Water Commission accepts no responsibility for errors, omissions, or product accuracy. There are no warranties, expressed or implied.

Date: 01/16/2016

